British Values

At Three Legged Cross First and Nursery School we promote values which ensure that our students develop a strong sense of social and moral responsibility.

We prepare children for the life in modern Britain because values such as individual liberty, democracy, the law, mutual respect and tolerance are embedded within the curriculum and the ethos at Three Legged Cross First and Nursery School

In addition, these values are also promoted at various times throughout the year.

Our curriculum is broad and balanced, complies with legislation and provides a wide range of subjects which prepare students for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of life in Modern Britain.

It actively promotes the fundamental British values and it extends beyond the classroom with a wide range of visits and experiences.

It promotes tolerance and respect for people of all faiths (or none), cultures and lifestyles through effective spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils, including by engaging pupils in extracurricular activity and volunteering in the local community.

DfE Counter Extremism Helpline:

- Call: 020 7340 7264
- Email: counter.extremism@education.gsi.gov.uk

All schools have a legal duty to educate students about extremist behaviour and to report any concerns about students who may be at risk of radicalisation.

This could (but is not limited to) include the following:

- Engaging with Islamic fundamentalists or their ideals (ISIL, Al Qaeeda etc)
- Extreme political views (white supremacy, anti-Semitism etc)
- Visits to countries deemed high risk by the UK government.
- Accessing websites / social media linked to extremist organisations ^[2] Views or behaviour that are contrary to British Values.

Recognising Signs of Radicalisation:

The following could describe general young person behaviour but together with other signs may mean the young person is being radicalised:

- out of character changes in dress, behaviour and changes in their friendship group
- losing interest in previous activities and friendships

- secretive behaviour and switching screens when you come near.

The following signs are more specific to radicalisation:

- owning mobile phones or devices they cannot account for
- showing sympathy for extremist causes
- advocating extremist messages
- glorifying violence
- accessing extremist literature and imagery
- showing a mistrust of mainstream media reports and belief in conspiracy theories
- appearing angry about governmental policies, especially foreign policy.

As a member of staff, you have a legal duty to report any concerns, however minor to the designated PREVENT member of staff.

Reporting a concern:

Reports should be made using My Concern and clearly marked with the word 'PREVENT'. The designated staff will then assess the risks to students and refer to CHANNEL (a multi-agency body linked to the police) who will respond if required.

EVEN IF YOU HAVE A MINOR, NAGGING DOUBT, PLEASE PASS IT ON.

Extremism will be covered in Citizenship and PSHE lessons, as well as in assemblies. A useful resource for further information is www.preventforschools.org

Please ensure that you are familiar with all information above, as it is an expectation that all staff engage with PREVENT and minimise the chances of any of our students becoming radicalised.
